Song 4 The Lord is good

Psalm 106 – Confession of Israel's repeated sin and rebellion contrasted with God's persistent goodness and mercy. Ends with a prayer for salvation.

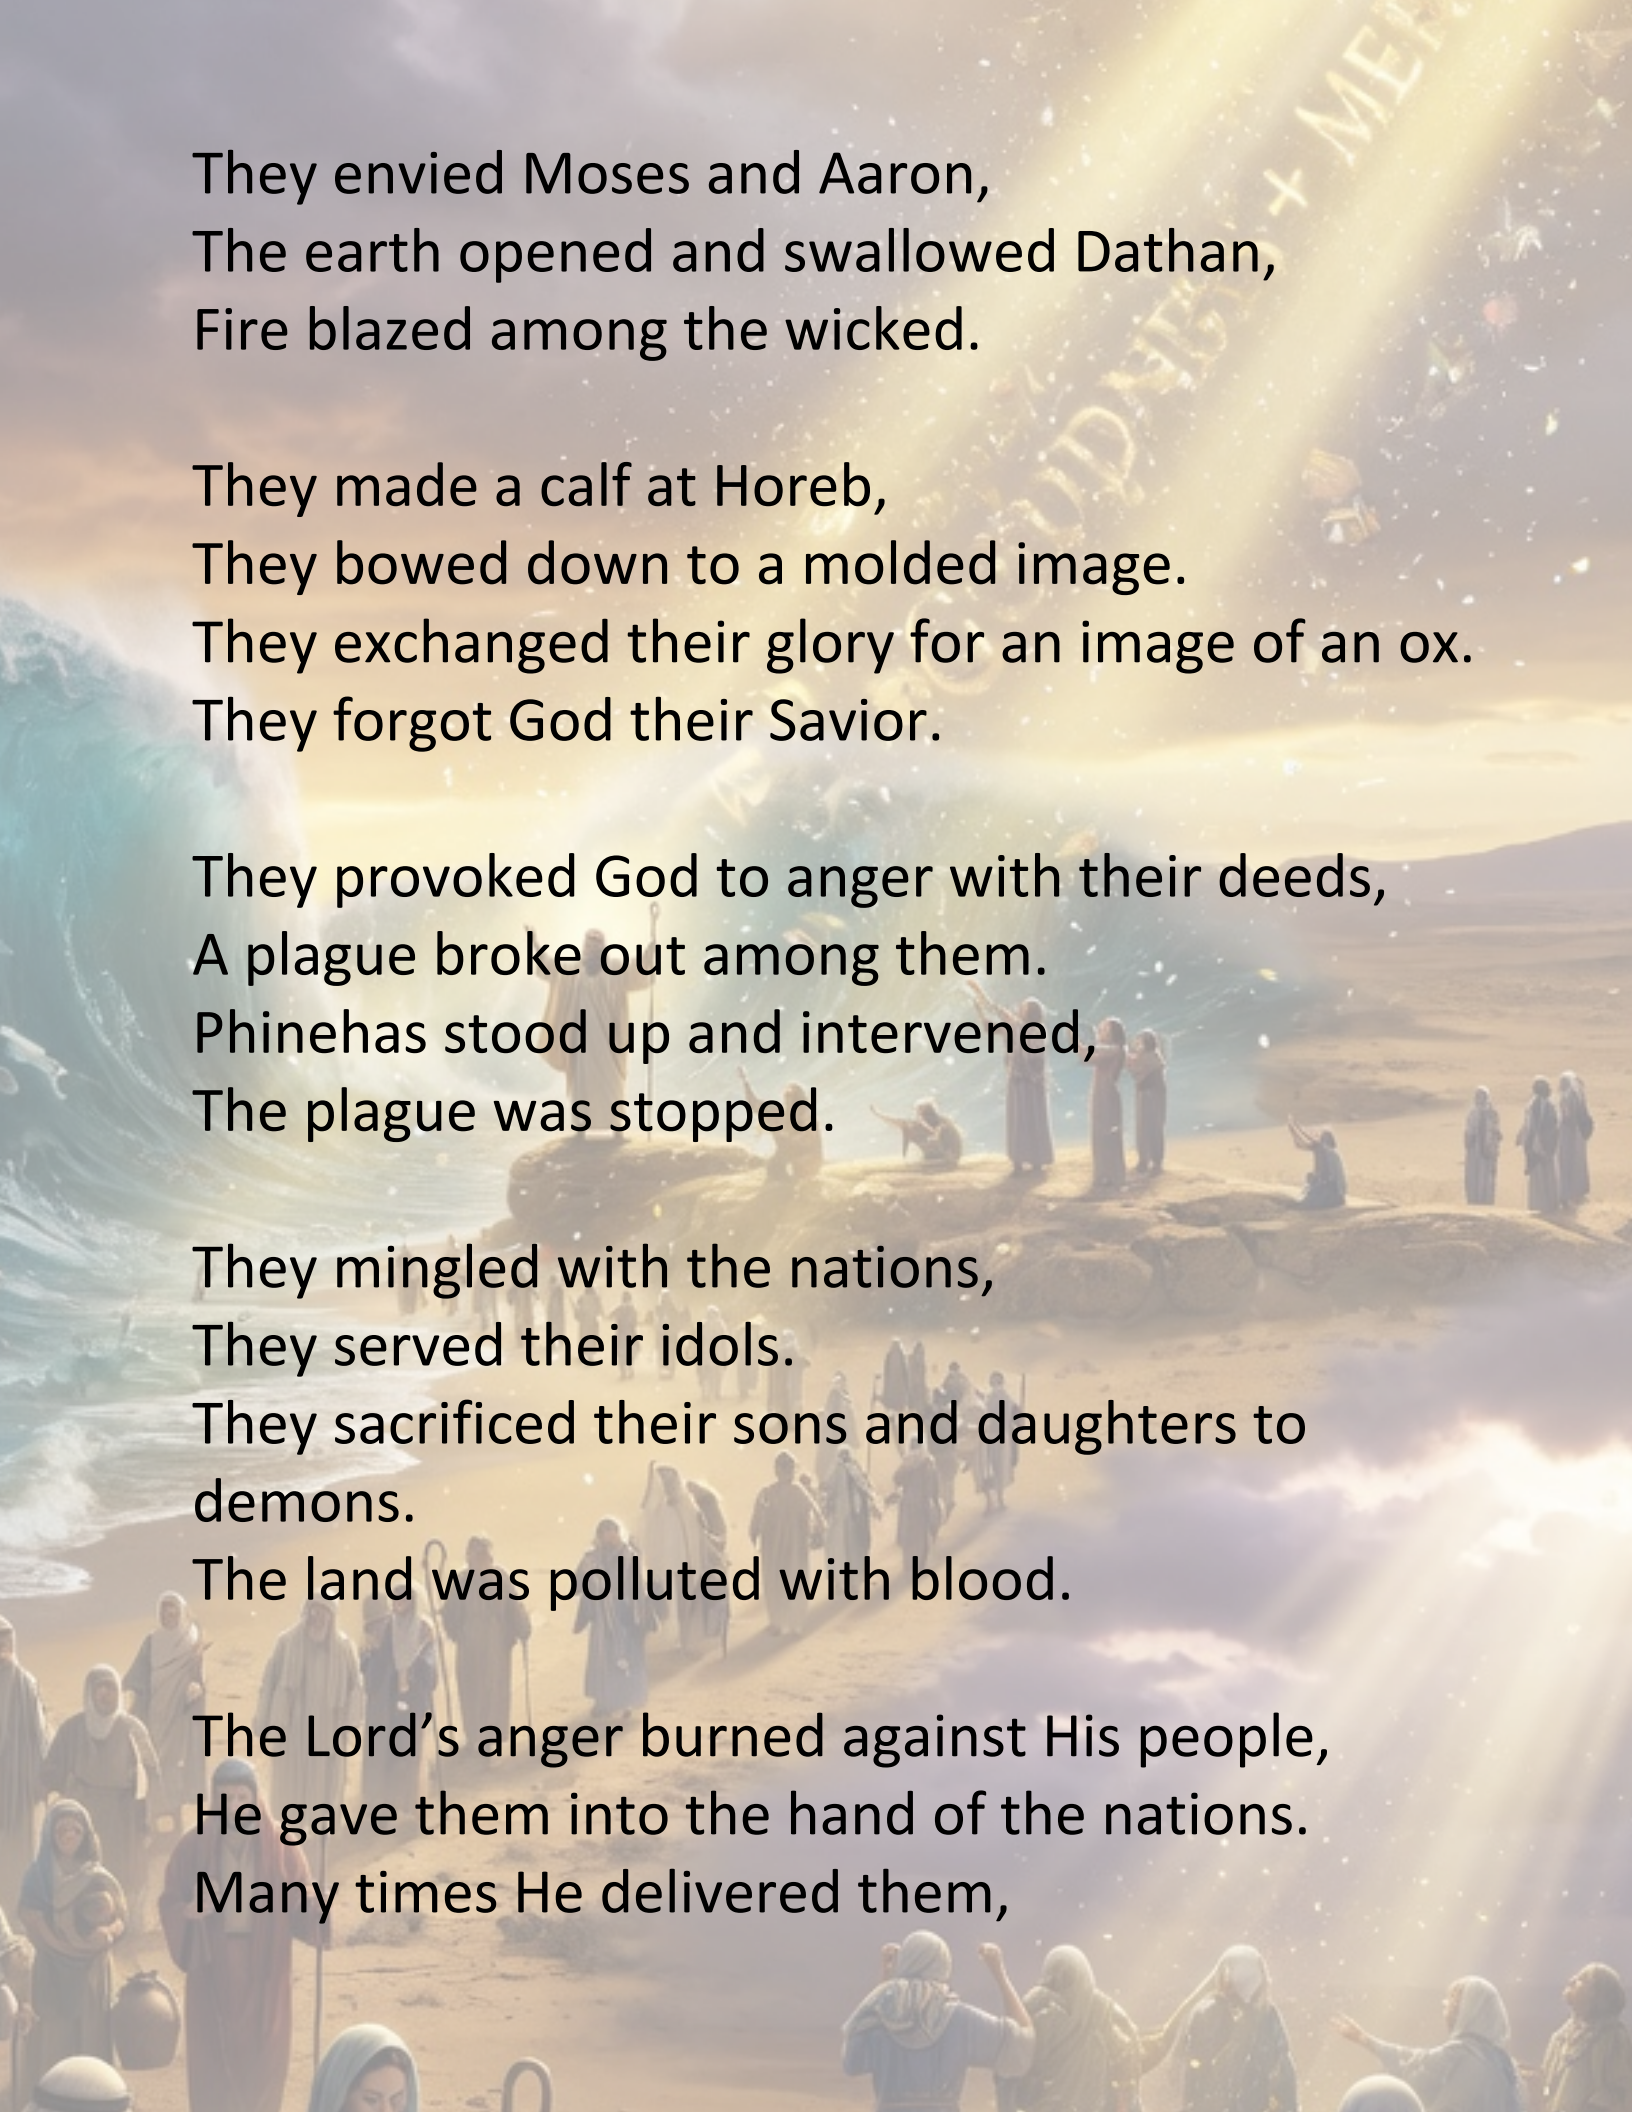

The Lord is good, give thanks to Him,
His mercy endures forever.

The Lord is mighty, praise His name,
His mercy endures forever.

He rebuked the Red Sea and made it dry,
He led our fathers through on dry ground.
He saved them from the hand of the enemy,
The sea covered their foes, not one remained.

They soon forgot His works,
They did not wait for His counsel.
In the desert they craved greatly,
They tested God in the wasteland.

He gave them what they asked,
But sent leanness into their soul.

They envied Moses and Aaron,
The earth opened and swallowed Dathan,
Fire blazed among the wicked.

They made a calf at Horeb,
They bowed down to a molded image.
They exchanged their glory for an image of an ox.
They forgot God their Savior.

They provoked God to anger with their deeds,
A plague broke out among them.
Phinehas stood up and intervened,
The plague was stopped.

They mingled with the nations,
They served their idols.
They sacrificed their sons and daughters to demons.
The land was polluted with blood.

The Lord's anger burned against His people,
He gave them into the hand of the nations.
Many times He delivered them,

But they were brought low by their sin.

He remembered His covenant and relented,
According to the greatness of His love.

Save us, O Lord our God,
Gather us from the nations,
That we may give thanks to Your holy name
And glory in Your praise.

Give thanks to the Lord, for He is good,
His mercy endures forever!
